

Dear Reader,

Whit, the hero of DON'T FEED THE BOY, has lots of adventures at the zoo where he lives with his parents, and he has even more adventures outside the zoo with his new friend Stella. He may be only eleven, but he's an expert on zoo animals and zoo life. He's also the kind of friend who would be happy to help you on a scavenger hunt. Happy hunting, and may you have your own wonderful adventures!
Thank you for reading,

Irene Latham

1. What is the name of the zoo where Whit lives with his parents?
2. Why does Whit call Stella the "Bird Girl"?
3. What happened to Stella's father to make him spend all his days in a chair?
4. In what do zookeepers transport venomous snakes?
5. What is the zoo peacock's name?
6. Where in the zoo to Whit and Stella accidentally fall asleep and spend the whole night?
7. What toy does Juan Carlos keep in his pocket?
8. What does it mean when a zoo employee issues a code "Joe DiMaggio"?
9. Who doesn't want to go on the trip to Madagascar?
10. When does Stella appear at Whit's bedroom window?

DON'T FEED THE BOY
by Irene Latham
978-1-59643-755-5
Roaring Brook/Macmillan
www.irenelatham.com

